FINDS CHICAGO RIVER CONTROL LOCKS USELESS

Gen. Jadwin Opposes Sanitary Project.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., April 23.—[Special.]—Maj. Gen. Edgar Jadwin, army chief of engineers, today disclosed that war department officials no longer consider it necessary or advisable for the Chicago sanitary district to construct control works to prevent the discharge of Chicago river storm water and sewage into Lake Michigan.

Called as a witness in the Chicago water diversion hearings by Charles Evans Hughes, special master for the Supreme court, Gen. Jadwin declared that after a thorough study of the situation department officials have reached the conclusion that the need for further control works is not established.

The present attitude of the chief engineer is that the United States should not require the construction of controlling works, but that the department will consider any application for the approval of plans of such works and may be expected to approve these plans if the works are shown to be necessary.

Gen. Jadwin added, however, that such works would merit approval only as a last resort, after it had been shown no other means would serve the purpose.

The new attitude of the engineering corps as expressed to Mr. Hughes revealed that the war department has reversed the views it held four years ago, when the 1925 permit was granted, permitting Chicago to continue diverting water from Lake Michigan for sanitation purposes.

Control Works Ordered.

At that time former Secretary of War John W. Weeks stipulated as one of the conditions under which Chicago could obtain a diversion that the sanitary district proceed to prepare plans for control works to prevent the discharge of the Chicago river into Lake Michigan and have them completed before Dec. 31, 1928.

In explaining his views, Gen. Jadwin said that if a diversion of 5,000 cubic second feet at Lockport, counting pumps for Chicago drinking water, is allowed by the Supreme court, the control gates would be unnecessary, as storm flow into Lake Michigan could be prevented from Lockport.

Points to Excessive River Rise.

The general said that while a control gate built at the mouth of the lake would prevent the river water from entering Lake Michigan, it might result in an excessive rise of the river in time of storm.

Touching on the navigation angle, Gen. Jadwin said that if control works were built, either at the mouth of the Chicago river or the head of the canal, seven miles from the river mouth, navigation of the Illinois would be impracticable unless the basic diversion, counting water for drinking purposes at Chicago, is fixed at 5,000 cubic second feet, the figure he favors.

Reduce Contaminations.

"The practical solution, in my opinion," said Gen. Jadwin, "is to systematically reduce the contaminations and the total diversion, observing the results obtained by the best operation of the present control at Lockport, and accumulating data on the behavior of the flow with this progressively decreasing diversion. This procedure will demonstrate in ample time whether or any control works are necessary and will furnish a correct basis for their design."

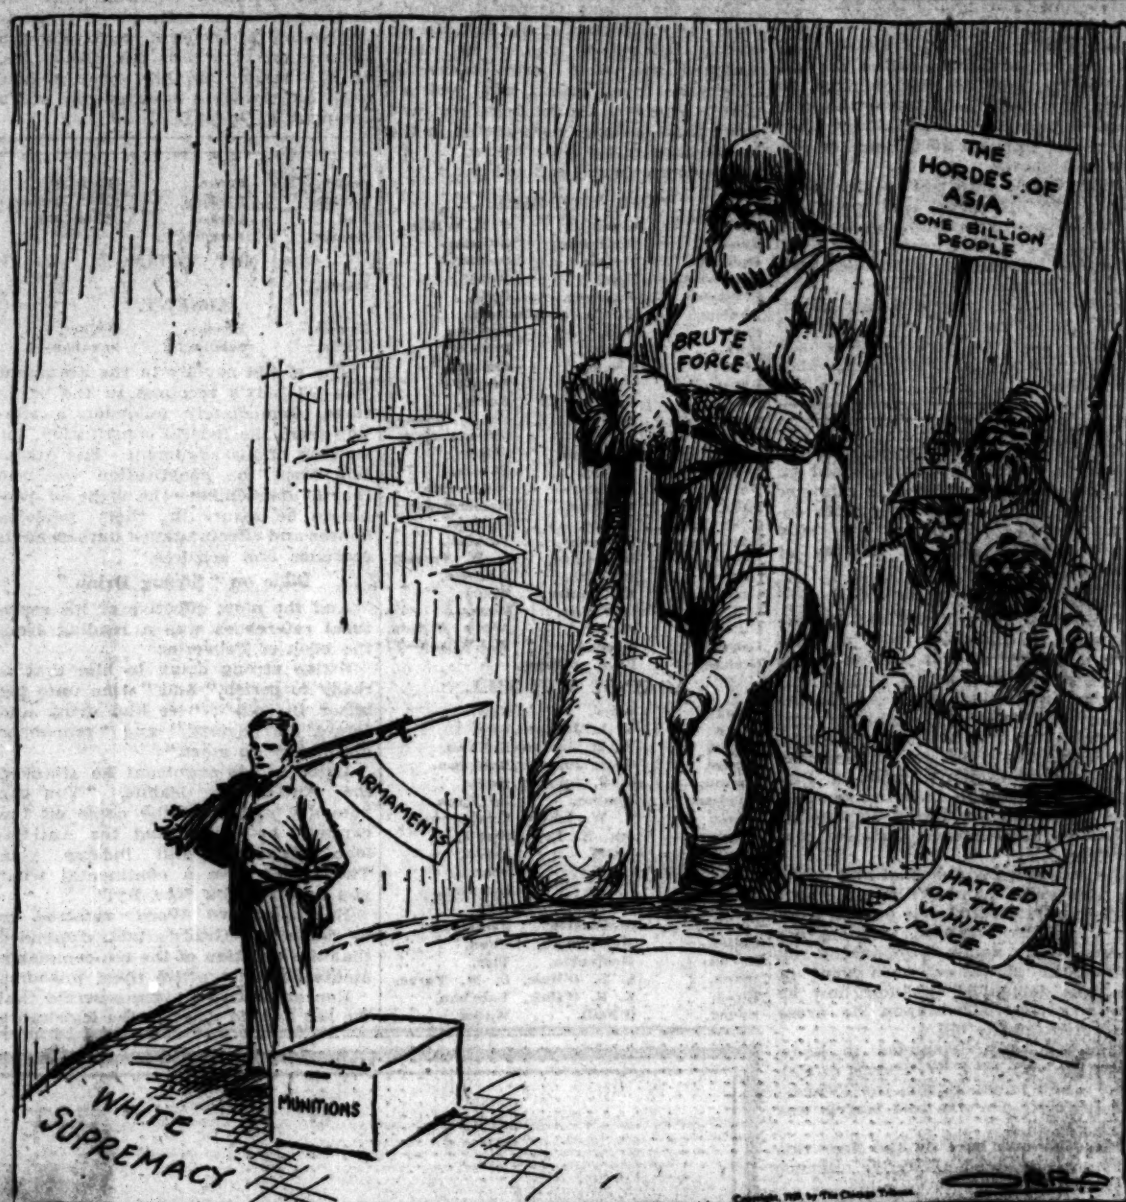

His testimony was requested by the master for expression of the views in regard to controlling works in times of heavy storm and the effect of such works on navigation.

CITY READY TO FIGHT

Corporation Counsel Ettelson took the position yesterday that the city, denied the right to intervene in the lake level litigation, will not be bound by the Supreme court decision curtailing the sanitary district's diversion of water from Lake Michigan.

The city, Ettelson declared, will start independent court proceedings rather than submit to any order in the pending case that would tend to pollute the municipality's drinking water or would require the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars on filtration plants and on a double sewer system.

THE WEAPON WHICH OUR PACIFISTS CONDEMN

4 GIRLS, 4 BOYS SEIZED; DARROW TO DEFEND THEM

Clarence Darrow will appear before Judge of the Peace, John Wagner at Tremont, Ind., today, in defense of four Hyde Park High school girls and four young men, charged with house breaking.

The eight young people drove to Waverly Beach, near Tremont, last Saturday, to leave a cottage for the summer. The girls planned to stay there with a chaperone as they had during past vacations. Failing to find the caretaker, they walked into one cottage and were leaving after looking at the vacant rooms when two deputy sheriffs arrested them.

The girl defendants, each 17 years old, are: Jasmin Cummings, 6503 Milwaukee avenue; Roberta Hazard, 5514 Blackstone avenue; Marian Meany, 7320 Chapel avenue; and Marjorie Gott, 7246 Merrill avenue. The youths are: Jack Kelly, 17 years old, 5009 East End avenue; Robert Morris, 19 years old, 1834 Oglesby avenue; Frank Blanchard, 18 years old, 7320 Cole avenue; and Louis Rohmer, 20 years old, staying with Blanchard.

Woman Is Robbed in Home of $500 for Sick Husband

Three armed men entered the home of Mrs. Anna Wessell, 30 years old, 2326 South Honore street, last night and robbed her of $500 which she was preparing to send to her husband who is ill in Texas. From the way they went about the job the robbers seemed to know she had the money in the house as well as its hiding place. Mrs. Wessell lived Brighton Park police.

Under the will Miss Alice G. Lovell, his secretary, receives $10,000. A similar amount is left to Chester D. Kern, a lawyer in his employ. A bequest of $25,000 is held in trust for a grandson, Thaddeus Dwight Hare.

Mr. Aldrich, who for many years was engaged in important corporation litigation, died in his apartment at the Webster hotel, April 14, at the age of 77 years. He served as solicitor general of the United States in the Harrison and Cleveland administrations, succeeding William Howard Taft when the latter was appointed to the bench of the United States court of appeals.

Ex-President of Law Club.

He was a past president of the Chicago Law club and had served as trustee of the Chicago Law institute and as vice president of the Union League club. He was a member of the Chicago, Illinois, and American bar associations.

His son, Charles Robert, who was for a time engaged in practice with his father, left the firm to pursue a study of philosophy in Switzerland. He is now engaged in writing a book on psychoanalysis.

In giving the son a half interest in the legal fee will reads, "I believe my son is endowed with great talent. I encourage him to continue his work, confident that he will win recognition."

Mr. Hoke Admits Banana Peel Suits Are Hokus

William Hoke, colored, 71 years old, of Centralia, Ill., was sentenced to six months in the Joliet penitentiary by Judge Howard Hayes in the racket court yesterday after he had admitted fraud in collecting damages from about 45 companies within the last few years as a result of starting suits after slipping on a banana peel. The amounts he accepted as settlement, he said, varied from $15 to $350. The accident was of his own making, Hoke confessed.

2 ROBBERIES TRIED, CONVICTED, SENT TO CELLS IN HOUR

Harry Meyers, 24 years old, and Robert Manning, 25 years old, were convicted in a speedy trial yesterday in Judge G. Fred Rusk's court where they were charged with the robbery of a Loblaw grocery at 6811 Stony Island avenue. The trial was concluded in 10 minutes and the jury returned its verdict within 5 minutes. Judge Rusk kept up the record of speed by sentencing each of the men at once to terms of one year to life in the penitentiary.

Assistant State's Attorneys Abe Johnson and Robert Ward complimented Policeman William Kaitel of the south park force for his efficient work in arresting the bandits after a gun battle. Kaitel was awarded $250 for his heroism for February.

N. U. AND ARMOUR INSTITUTE GIVE UP MERGER PLAN

The proposed affiliation of the Armour Institute of Technology with Northwestern university, under discussion for the last four years, has been abandoned with the consent and approval of both parties, according to an announcement last night by Howard M. Raymond, president of the institute.

The merger was first proposed in December, 1925. A month later a tentative contract was signed between the two institutions. Among the provisions in the contract was the raising of a building and endowment fund of $10,000,000 and erection on the Evanston campus of ten new dormitories for men.

Old Doc Carter Is Busy; Quack Trial Delayed

The trials of two quack physicians and one fake dentist were set for hearing in Municipal Judge Alfred O. Erickson's court yesterday afternoon. The hearing netted two continuances and one conviction for the state board of registration and education in its announced drive against the menace of medical quackery in Chicago.

Old Doc Franklin O. Carter, who met his license nearly three years ago, did not even appear and it was reported that he was too busy practicing eye surgery to come into court. A state inspector expressed some mild indignation at this report, but Judge Erickson continued the case for one week when Carter's attorney pleaded another engagement.

Negro Wins Continuance.

The dentist, a Negro, also received a continuance until May 14. Testimony in his case was gone into fully, but his attorney explained that his client had a good army record.

The third defendant, Joseph A. Plakas, who was a waiter in St. Louis until he heard that the medical business was good in Chicago, also wanted a continuance. But after a three hour hearing a judge sentenced him to serve sixty days in jail, remarking: "I don't see how I can help finding you guilty."

When Doc Carter's case was called, his lawyer stepped up and asked for the continuance. He said he was about to start picking a jury in another court. Dwight Anderson, assistant director of the state board, objected.

"This is the second continuance of the case," he said. "Why should the state be forced to drag in its witnesses time after time while this man, who advertises that he can cure crossed eyes and whose license was revoked in June, 1925, is allowed to practice openly. I've just been told that he's in his office now, ready for business."

Case Set for April 30.

Carter's attorney admitted he had told his client to stay in his office, but denied that the former physician was practicing. The judge settled the argument by continuing the case until April 30.

Mr. Anderson later said that he would arrest Carter if the latter is found in his office today and that he would arrest him every day if he continued to practice. He said he had heard that Carter was awaiting a shakeup in the state board before he went to trial, expecting that new officials would be ignorant of the case and not enthusiastic over prosecution.

Then came the case of the Negro dentist, John Wells. There was no dispute that Wells was practicing without a license and that his only experience had been gained as a janitor about a dentist's office. But his lawyer produced papers showing that he was honorably discharged from the army and had gained some dental knowledge in the dental corps while in service. The continuance this time was to May 14.

Plakas Case Is Called.

The Plakas case followed. Plakas was arrested on March 23 in his suite on the fourth floor of the building at 35 South Dearborn street. His name was on the door as "Dr. Plakas"; there were patients waiting for treatment at his hands, and there was an imposing license framed on the wall.

The license was shown by Assistant State's Attorney Harry S. Ditchburne to be a forgery. A half dozen witnesses testified that Plakas had admitted he purchased the license from an unidentified man.

Plakas, speaking broken English he said he came to America from Greece in 1915 and was employed as a waiter until little more than a year ago told the following story:

"I know a lot about medicine. I had four years of medical education (Continued on page 16, column 4.)

WITNESS ASKS 4 INDICTMENTS IN AURORA CASE

Names Three Raiders and Snooper.

Kane county's grand jury investigation of the killing of Mrs. Lillian De King by a dry raider at Aurora on March 23 began at Geneva yesterday under unusual circumstances. It was a witness and not State's Attorney George D. Carbery who asked the grand jury to indict Deputy Sheriff Roy Smith for the killing, to indict Eugene Fairchild, dry snooper formerly employed by the prosecutor, as a perjurer, and to indict two other dry raiders as accessories to the slaying of the woman.

State's Attorney Carbery asked the grand jury to place the blame fairly, even on himself if the evidence so warranted.

When the investigation had adjourned for the day Carbery announced new policies concerning dry raids and indicated that all his present staff of investigators would be dismissed. He explained that hitherto he had personally directed investigators in the north half of the county but permitted others to do so in the southern half. Henceforth he will be in command from search under future arrangements, except under extraordinary circumstances, he declared.

Murphy Asks Indictments.

Attorney Robert A. Milroy, who represents the De King family, was the first witness called before the grand jury by Mr. Carbery when the inquest opened. Milroy's preliminary statement, as outlined after his appearance before the jury, follows:

"First, I want to tell you men you can indict Fairchild for perjury. Despite the ruling last week of Justice C. B. Dickson that he had not taken a legal oath because the words 'by the ever living God' were omitted. That's a lot of junk. He made a false affidavit that he bought liquor from Mrs. De King and he can and should be held to account for it."

"Second, indicting Deputy Sheriff Roy Smith for killing Mrs. De King. I think you should indict Deputies Hale Treadwell and Clarence Anderson as accessories. Anderson was in charge of the raid and he forced his way into the house without stating he had a search warrant or reading it. He sent Deputy Smith into the house by another door. It was then that Smith knocked down the husband, Joseph De King, with the stock of his shotgun and shot Mrs. De King. Treadwell threw a tear gas bomb into the home at about the time of the shooting and if the bullets didn't kill Mrs. De King the gas did."

Requests Quir on Snuff System.

"I think you should make a careful inquiry into the system of the state's attorney's office in paying out money to snoopers without authority or accounting on the basis of so much for each reported purchase of liquor. I think you should hold Chief Investigator Walter Milroy to account—an irresponsible hiring of irresponsible men and having absolute authority over paying them."

Milroy, who was talking on the telephone with Mrs. De King at the time of the shooting, related what he knew of the fatal raid.

"Mrs. De King was asking me what to do about the raiders," the attorney said. "She said they had never sold any liquor but had a little wine in the home and she was afraid her husband was going to be arrested. Suddenly in the midst of the conversation I heard her scream, then the sound of a shot—and nothing more. I hurried over to the De King home."

Milroy said from his own knowledge and from his investigation he was convinced that Mrs. De King was shot as she sat at the telephone, calling for help.

Witness Argues with Juror.

Milroy was reported to have become engaged in an argument with one of the jurors when he was asked if he had not, when he was an assistant United States district attorney, prosecuted De King for a liquor law violation which resulted in a five day sentence for De King. He finally admitted this was so.

Following Milroy into the grand jury room was Jack Murray, who said he drove the attorney to the De King home after the shooting. He was reported to have testified to finding the telephone receiver off the hook and to have suggested that Mrs. De King had dropped it when she was shot. Deputy Sheriff Ole Nelson was then called. He was in the De King home drinking with De King when his fellow raiders burst in.

UNCLE SAM TO TAKE SOUNDINGS ON LINERS' RUM

Will Hold Supplies to Medicinal Limit.

BY TOM PETTEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
New York, April 23.—[Special.]—The government put ships of American registry on a traveling drug store basis today when the customs service promulgated its new code of regulations to prevent an epidemic of liquor smuggling within the twelve mile liquor zone. At the same time forward thinking bootleggers were planning an alekshic refueling station out beyond the twelve mile limit that would insure high links on the high seas.

The latest government edict provides that to carry a supply of liquor an American vessel must first obtain a permit from the United States public health service and that all supplies hereafter will be as rigidly checked up as are the liquor rations in drug stores.

Before the landlubbers got wise to the medicinal store idea on government vessels, it was the custom for the skipper to carry a key to the wine lockers and make a report of consumption when his ship's papers were sent to the customs authorities. But the government has sold out its ships to private interests, and now there is to be a microscopic measuring of bottles and expert tapping of kegs every time an American ship sails in or out.

Leviathan Faces Scrutiny.

One reason the new ruling went into effect today was that the American Shipper, which sails under private ownership on its next voyage, came into port this morning. Another cause for the action is that the Leviathan is due in New York on Friday. It is anticipated that if the Leviathan's medicinal stores do not correspond with the supplies it carried out [legitimate medicinal withdrawals excepted] something is going to be done about it. The huge Leviathan has been "sounding out" the sea going public on the liquor situation ever since it steamed away under a private flag

1,000 BOTTLES OF RUM ARE FOUND ON TWO U. S. LINERS

New York, April 23.—[Special.]—The S. S. Republic, recently purchased by the new United States Lines, Inc., but still under the control of the ship's board, was subjected to a liquor search this afternoon. Fifteen agents of the customs enforcement bureau worked for several hours, ultimately finding about 400 bottles of assorted liquors—most of it hidden near a saluting gun port amidships.

The Munson liner Southern Cross, which docked in Hoboken today, also received a search. The latter produced about 600 bottles of assorted liquors—most of it hidden near a saluting gun port amidships.

Here Is His Plan.

This is the plan: A ship loaded to the gunwales with choice wines and liquors from Halifax and St. Pierre will anchor at a well advertised point beyond the legal 12 mile limit outside New York harbor. It will serve as a "filling station" to outlying dry vessels and as a kind of a "holding corporation" for incoming vessels whose stewards overestimated the capacity of the passengers. Just what ship it will be or where it will be anchored is not yet told.

Capt. A. T. Henderson, in charge of the coast guard, didn't think much of the idea. Coast guard boats in this vicinity have spotted no such ship, he said, and expressed a doubt that the rum ship was anything but a threat. Steamship companies, however, were cautiously optimistic about the scheme.

Customs officials said there was no doubt about legality of the rum ship filling station scheme, as the only action called criminal is running the booze in from outside the limits.

Cuba to Deport American for Violating Liquor Pact

HAVANA, April 23.—[Special.]—Sydney Hoffman, American citizen, was today placed aboard the Cuban prison ship Maximo Gomez to await deportation on charges of violating the United States-Cuban liquor treaty.

CHIEF DEFENDS RIGHT TO SHOOT BY COAST GUARD

Firing on U. S. Vessel Is Defended.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 23.—[Special.]—Treasury department officials today defended the right of the coast guard cutter Seneca to shell and later board the collier T. A. D. Jones, 50 miles off the New Jersey coast, Saturday night, but declined to comment on the collier crew's charge they were roughly treated by the coast guard boarding party.

Promising an investigation of the affair if a formal complaint is filed by the collier's skipper, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Seymour Lowman insisted that the coast guard is empowered under the law to halt and board American ships wherever found on the high seas. Thousands of American flag ships are boarded annually by coast guardmen to inspect cargoes and ship's papers or to caution masters against violations of navigation laws, according to Mr. Lowman.

"And," continued the assistant secretary, recalling the recent warning issued by Rear Admiral Frederick Billard, commander of the coast guard, to yacht owners and motor boat men, "if an American flag ship refuses to heed the call of a coast guard boat, it is the latter's legal right to shell the fleeing vessel."

Demand Coast Guardsmen Quit.

At the same time Mr. Lowman made public the fact that investigation of another recent coast guard "outrage" in which a rum navy picket boat raked the Miami river shore line with machine gun bullets, has resulted in a demand for the resignation of the coast guardsmen in charge of the picket boat.

"The opinion rendered," according to Mr. Lowman's announcement, "that Bostwain James R. Ingram used poor judgment in ordering the use of a machine gun in the Miami river, flanked as it is by dwellings, apartment houses, yachts, and houseboats, has been approved. The river

DEATH SENTENCE FOR COAST GUARD SLAYER IS UPHOLD

New Orleans, La., April 23.—[Special.]—The United States Court of Appeals today refused to grant a rehearing in the case of James Horace Alderman, rum runner, sentenced to hang for the murder of two coast guardmen on the high seas between Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Nassau, Bahama Islands.

The decision upheld the District court and left the United States Supreme court as the only tribunal that can save Alderman from the gallows.

More than a year ago Alderman shot to death two coast guardmen and a secret service agent after the coast guard vessel CG-248 had captured a rum runner and arrested him.

While being brought ashore, Alderman got a revolver and opened fire.

at this point is very narrow and the use of firearms at this particular point is a menace to innocent people.

Bostwain Ingram has been requested to tender his resignation.

Reverses Criticism of Billard.

The T. A. D. Jones incident and the demand for Ingram's resignation revived the criticism which has been directed at Admiral Billard's administration of the coast guard as a result of numerous cases of reckless or unnecessary use of ships' guns by coast guard patrol boats.

In addition to the many cases where the lives of citizens have been needlessly imperiled by "hair trigger" guardmen assigned to rum patrol duty on the great lakes are the recent sinking of the Canadian schooner, the I'm Alone and the shelling of the private yacht of Stuyvesant Fish, wealthy New Yorker, Ingram, so far as is known, is the first coast guardman involved in any of the many "outrages" to be punished.

DIPLOMATS AND DRY CHIEF HIT IN LIQUOR FIGHT

Bleese Would Cut Off Embassy Rum.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 23.—A resolution proposing to prohibit the importation of liquor by foreign diplomats and providing for expulsion of envoys who refuse to accept Volsteadism as binding upon them was offered in the senate today by Senator Cole Bleese (Dem., S. C.).

The preamble of the resolution, which went to the judiciary committee, reiterated the South Carolinian's contention that diplomatic immunity may not be invoked to cover the importation of articles declared contraband by the federal constitution.

Questions Cannon on Trip.

Earlier in the day Representative P. H. La Guardia (Rep., N. Y.) announced that he had dispatched a radiogram to Bishop James Cannon Jr. of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, aboard the Olympic bound for New York, asking the bishop why he chose to travel on a "British rum-soaked ship" when accommodations on home dry American ships were available.

"Here," declared Mr. La Guardia, "is another splendid example of hypocrisy. Bishop Cannon, one of the chiefs of the Anti-Saloon league, has been talking himself blue in the face on prohibition and urging Americans to give no support directly or indirectly to the rum industry. He is now on board of one of the greatest rum selling hostilities in the world."

Could Have Used Dry Ship.

"Bishop Cannon," continued Mr. La Guardia, "has no less than four American bone dry ships on which he could have taken passage, but apparently preferred the Olympic, wide open cockpit, highball, champagne soaked vessel, to these others."

"Do as I say, but never mind what I do," seems to be the slogan of prohibition leaders, ecclesiastical, legislative, judicial and others."

ARREST EX-DRY SPY TAKING BRIBE ON U. S. DOORSTEP

Milwaukee, Wis., April 23.—[Special.]—Ira Billington, 35, former undercover agent for the federal prohibition department here, late today was arrested by George Harris of the United States secret service while in the act of accepting a bribe of $275, for which he promised to alter his testimony in a case involving violation of the liquor laws.

The bribe was solicited from Strat Petropoulos at the door of the federal courtroom, where more than 100 defendants in liquor cases were being tried.

Billington, according to Petropoulos, offered to change his own testimony in regard to purchases of liquor, and also to go to Detroit tonight to influence the testimony of George Belbold, prohibition agent, who was with the government snoper on one occasion when liquor was purchased. The case of Petropoulos was to have been heard before Federal Judge F. A. Coker tomorrow.

When Harris arrested Billington the latter was standing in plain view of passersby while Petropoulos counted ed into his outstretched hand the bribe money in $5 and $1 bills.

PUNISH KANSAS SOLON WHO BARED DRY HYPOCRISY

Tells of Capital Revelry;
Held to "Aid Enemy."

STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

Topeka, Kas., April 23.—(Special.)—The Kansas legislature solemnly declared three months ago it did not want its hotel room parties and drunken orgies advertised because this would give aid and comfort to the anti-prohibitionists.

The house visited chastisement upon one of its members, J. R. Burton, of Kansas City, Kas., for telling the world of the scenes of revelry he had witnessed at the state capital. It also sought to bridge the tongues of other members on the habits of lawmakers who vote dry but drink wet.

These facts throw a curious illumination upon the development of hypocrisy on the part of the established technique of politics in Kansas. Out here some of the statesmen have become so expert in dissimulation that the saying is they invented cheating in a game of solitaire.

The Governor Promises.
Gov. Clyde M. Reed last Christmas, before taking office, notified the attorney general to expect a vigorous dry enforcement during the legislative session. He directed attention to the booze parties that had become a notable part of the night life of the capital. Incidentally, one of Gov. Reed's first acts as governor was to charter $40,000 out of the legislature to be spent as he sees fit for law enforcement.

"I tell the truth, the Kansas legislature, dry as a whistle in its voting and its speechmaking, seems like the rest of them. The 1927 session was regarded as one of the wildest on record. Eyewitnesses declare that for drinking and inebriety it surpassed the days a quarter of a century ago when many of the lawmakers still wore buffalo hides and spent their days whaling Standard Oil and other "octopuses of capital" and spent their nights punishing John Barleycorn."

This observer got his first glimpse of Kansas politics during one of those sessions. And the local talent reports that the 1927 night life was the wettest. Apparently Topeka was no different from Springfield, Ill.; Lansing, Mich.; Columbus, O.; Madison, Wis., or Des Moines, Ia., when the lawmakers are in session.

Tell of Whoopee Party.
Participants here still speak rapturously of a stag party thrown in 1927 by the railroad lobby, attended by wet and dry—they smack their lips as they call it a "ringtailed salaputizer."

So everybody was vastly interested in whether Gov. Reed's ukase would dry up the 1929 session. A fortnight after the session started Mr. Burton,

SACRED ROTA HEARS 451 MATRIMONIAL PLEAS IN ONE YEAR

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

ROME, April 23.—According to figures published today, 451 appeals for loosening of matrimonial bonds were heard by the sacred rota of the Vatican during the last year. No appeals for annulment of marriages came from the United States. Out of fifty-one requests for marriage annulment, the Vatican court acted favorably on twenty cases. The names and causes of action are kept secret.

Church of England Eggs Divorce.

TORONTO, Ont., April 23.—(P)—The Church of England in Canada through the house of bishops today issued to the clergy this pronouncement:

"The breaking up of families in divorce and the increase of the grounds and of facilities for divorce, do constitute a moral peril. We dare not look upon this thing with light hearted cynicism or pass it by with a flippant cynical jest. History tells us that it is not an evidence, as some are using, of progress working out toward self development and greater freedom of the individual. The New Testament tells that it is not according to the mind of Christ. It must be looked upon as nothing short of a menace threatening the stability of our modern civilization."

the member from the Kansas City, Kas. district, was interviewed.

"Kansas is the wettest it has been since 1851," he said. "In the last two weeks I saw parties of young people in the hotels of Topeka, among them some of the best people in the city, reeling from drink."

"I saw women under 20 years old so drunk they had to be carried from the hotel to a taxicab."

"I saw drinking in Topeka hotels, at card parties, and dinners."

"I believe Gov. Reed's special enforcement appropriation of $40,000 puts too much power in his hands."

"Kansas City is a paradise compared to the capital city of Topeka."

This was like throwing a match down on an oil well. The political member from the Kansas City, Kas. district, was interviewed.

"Kansas is the wettest it has been since 1851," he said. "In the last two weeks I saw parties of young people in the hotels of Topeka, among them some of the best people in the city, reeling from drink."

"I saw women under 20 years old so drunk they had to be carried from the hotel to a taxicab."

"I saw drinking in Topeka hotels, at card parties, and dinners."

"I believe Gov. Reed's special enforcement appropriation of $40,000 puts too much power in his hands."

"Kansas City is a paradise compared to the capital city of Topeka."

This was like throwing a match down on an oil well. The political dry set up the cry of "propaganda," which for more than a generation has been a refuge for the fanatics of Kansas. Gov. Reed, attacking Burton, said the corporation lobby was behind the opposition to his $40,000 dry appropriation.

"The lobby," he said, "resents my attitude in depriving it of the use of booze to further the corporation lobby purposes in this session of the legislature."

Punished for Telling Facts.

The house of representatives without delay voted disapproval of Burton's statements. Donald Muir, a Democrat from Harper county, put in the resolution. Muir was once a Democratic candidate for governor, was elected to the house as a Democrat, and after Kansas went for Hoover abandoned his support of Gov. Reed and his dry program. The house hopped Burton for telling what he had seen. They made a Roman holiday of it. The Muir resolution condemned him, and also sought to suppress disclosures from other members.

The resolutions illustrate the program of suppression, secretiveness and denial as practiced by the "holier than thou" cult in Kansas. They lamented that Burton's remarks "will tend to give aid and comfort to those against prohibition." It was quite evident the Burton statement gave an impression to the voters that the legislators "instead of attending to their constitutional duties are engaging in drunken orgies and in other unbecomingly conduct." And this is exactly the impression the dry voting but wet drinking element did not want conveyed to their constituents back home.

Attempt the Inquisition.

Burton tried to fight back, but was overwhelmed. After he had spoken once or twice, the gag was sprung on him. They offered him a chance to apologize, and he told them the truth should need no apology. Then the drinkers, the booze party attendants, joined with the rest in a unanimous vote for the condemnation of Burton for telling what he had seen.

Immediately Sheriff Wayne Horning appeared in the house cloak room and summoned Burton a court of inquisition in the county attorney's office. The thunders were to be applied. But Burton stood on his constitutional rights of immunity during a session and tossed the summons into the waste basket.

Afterwards Burton met County Attorney J. Glenn Logan and with his tongue in his cheek, remarked, "O, yes, Topeka is so dry the streets are cracking."

But the sarcasm went over their heads. The political dry took it solemnly and brayed, "He's recanted." Burton's friends replied, "The sanctified couldn't spear a humorous crack if they jumped for it."

One funny thing about it all was that Burton had not gone much further in denouncing booze parties than had Gov. Reed. The episode tended to make drinking less prevalent. The 1929 session was accompanied by few heavy potations in Topeka, but it's only two hours to Kansas City. More and much finer drinking was lavishly transferred.

Democrat Dry Rewarded.

As to Muir, the Democrat who led the attack on Burton, he reaped a speedy reward. Gov. Reed sent in his name for the state tax commission. The senate refused to confirm the appointment, but after the session was over Gov. Reed gave Muir a recess appointment and he is now chairman of the state tax commission. Thus, in Kansas it pays to advertise dryness in politics.

Gov. Reed's opposition is widely discussed. In recent years, Kansas governors have been on the headquarters committee of the Anti-Saloon League. Gov. Reed declined to go on. The league has been in bad odor since its scandals of three years ago, but Reed let it be known that on inauguration day he vowed never to let a drop of likker touch his lips while governor—much like Gov. Walter Kohler, liberal governor of Wisconsin. Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, famous author of "In His Steps," thereupon dashed in bearing his temperance pledge with an invitation that the governor sign. But Gov. Reed declined to commit himself as a life passenger on the water wagon. He said he did not believe in exploiting personal habits or in bringing them into the dry enforcement issue.

Reed's friends say he has demonstrated his accord with the Hoover dry idea of "voluntary law observance." Reed's enemies, however, say he is playing both sides, turning down an empty glass as a gesture to the drys and turning down Dr. Sheldon's pledge card as a salute to the wets.

Health, energy and vitality arise from a fastidiously-cared-for body and enlightened habits of personal cleanliness. ## WARREN WARNS TRANSIT LINES BUFFALO COUNCIL

Legislators He Opposes Bills.

BY CARL WARREN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Buffalo, N. Y., April 23.—[Special.]—Mr. Warren, political leader of other transit lines, now 75, is expected to be out of retirement to take part in the Buffalo program of transit legislation. For the most part he opposed the bills and urged their defeat.

Mr. Warren, at one time mayor of Chicago and later governor of Illinois, left a sick room against the advice of his physician to respond to an invitation of the house municipalities committee to appear before it. Out of eight prominent transit and present and former city officials invited, he was the only one present.

Consider Amendments.
After hearing from the former governor and discussing the bills among themselves, the committee voted to postpone action until next Tuesday. At that time, it was agreed, amendments will be considered and the bills will go to a roll call.

Mr. Warren drew a round of applause from the legislators when he stated that, although a private citizen with no further political ambitions, he considered an invitation from a legislative committee "a command." A moment later he evoked comment by pointing out that his opponent in a race for mayor 25 years ago, John Maynard Harlan, was in the room. Mr. Harlan now represents P. J. Lin-man and is opposed to the bills as drawn. The objections made to the bills by former Governor Warren in fact were almost identical with those of Mr. Harlan. He protested in particular against the terminable permit bill, declaring that it would mean a perpetual franchise and that a 20-year grant would be adequate.

Would Own and Control Line.
"In my opinion," Mr. Warren said, "the city council has been buffeted into this perpetual franchise plan by the companies. I would propose instead that the city buy the lines, making a payment down and paying the rest in installments. At the end of 25 years it would own and control them."

Among others who spoke to the committee this afternoon was Attorney General Oscar F. Carlstrom, who was asked for an opinion as to the constitutionality of the bills. He said of hand that he considered four of them alright but questioned some phases of the other two. He is to present a full written opinion to the committee before its next meeting. Mayor Thompson is his letter to the committee stated briefly that he is in accord with the bills and that he did not believe he could amplify that statement by coming to Springfield.

Former Mayor William F. Dever wired that he is confined at home with illness, while former Corporation Counsel Francis X. Busch, wrote that an important law case kept him away. Former Mayor Carter H. Harrison, in a lengthy communication, attacked the bill, objecting especially to a provision that "that the grant shall continue until the municipality shall have purchased and taken over the properties."

Americans Help Fight $50,000 Fire in Bermuda

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
HAMILTON, Bermuda, April 23.—A fire of unknown origin destroyed the two-story building adjoining the Hotel Bermudiana and threatened the business section for two hours before it was put under control. American guests deserted the hotel grillrooms to help fight the fire. Two persons were injured. The damage was estimated at $50,000.

AFGHAN RAIDERS INVADE PERSIA, RUN OFF WOMEN

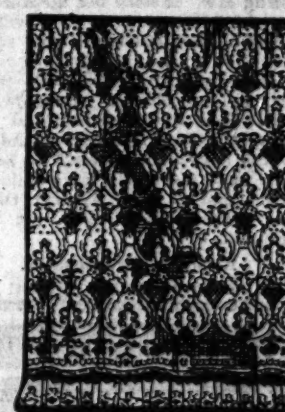

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
TEHERAN, Persia, April 23.—A delicate situation has arisen in Persia, as a result of Moscow's recent note declaring that Russia would take strong action against any attempted invasion of Afghanistan by a foreign power. Along the Afghanistan-Persia frontier there have been repeated incursions of Afghanistan tribesmen, resulting in the killing of Persian peasants and carrying off their wives and live stock. The raids are increasing daily, the raiders becoming more daring with the knowledge that they are safe across the frontier. The Persian authorities because all the so-called regular troops in Herat province have been withdrawn to help former King Amahullah in his fight to regain his throne.

POLICE TO USE NAVAL RESERVE RADIO STATION

The Chicago police department yesterday obtained the use of the naval reserves broadcasting station, NDS, located in Lincoln park, to extend the police radio service inaugurated over the Tribune station, W-G-N.

Lieut. Com. R. H. G. Mathews of the Volunteer Communication Naval Reserve offered the use of the station at a conference yesterday in the office of Commissioner William Russell. It is proposed to coordinate by radio all law enforcement agencies of Cook and adjacent counties, particularly the Chicago department, the park police forces, the county highway police, and the sheriff's office.

The use of the new station, with its 24 hour uninterrupted service, is to begin, it was said, as soon as mechanical adjustments are made in the detective bureau squad cars receiving sets, which are now fixed for W-G-N reception. The station NDS is operated to train men for war time service as naval radio operators. It uses 5,000 watts, giving it a range, under normal conditions, of 5,000 miles. It has an exclusive wave length of 71 meters or 4,248 kilocycles, a wave length that is not used by amateurs nor can it be received on the ordinary household set.

"The use of the radio by the police in the last few weeks," said Commissioner Russell in accepting the offer, "has been so effective that it has become almost imperative that the department have its own station." The police, notified by radio, have arrived at the scene of trouble in periods of seconds, rather than hours as in some cases heretofore.

"Police radio has passed its experimental stage and has become an integral part of modern police equipment."

CHIEF'S MORTUARY AS GUN TARGET.

Henry Jones, colored, 28 years old, 2905 Federal street, was shot $100 and sentenced to six months in the Bridewell yesterday by Judge Francis Borelli on charges of carrying a concealed weapon and threatening the life of his sweetheart.

CHICAGO SCHOOL TAX BILL STRIKES ROUGH SLEDDING

Legislators Seem to Shy at Increasing Levy.

[Chicago Tribune Staff Service.] Springfield, Ill., April 23.—[Special.]—If its reception by the education committee of the house of representatives this afternoon is a sample of what is ahead, the Chicago school tax bill to boost school taxes is due for extremely rough treatment at the hands of the legislature.

The bill which was introduced by Representative Calvin T. Weeks provides for an increase of the educational fund tax from 96 cents to $1.47 in 1929 and to $1.55 in 1930, giving the school board temporary relief to tide it over its financial crisis. A delegation of school board officials, led by Wallace Caldwell, president, urged passage of the bill.

Hear Opponents Next Week. Today's hearing, the first, was given over almost entirely to the proponents of the bill. The opponents will be heard a week from today.

Hostility to the measure by committee members cropped out and school officials were subjected to a bombardment of questions for two hours.

Mr. Caldwell said that unless the bill passed the schools will be unable to open for the September term, that the teachers and other employees will be out of work, and that the children will be on the streets. He blamed the acute financial situation upon increased expenditures caused by growth of the schools and expansion of special educational activities. The immediate crisis, he said, is occasioned by the delay in the tax reassessment.

Asks About Referendum. "What I want to know first of all is why you don't want this tax increase submitted to a referendum," said Representative Sidney Parker. "You have the right under the present law to go to the people and get a one dollar increase in the educational fund."

Mr. Caldwell explained that the relief is needed only temporarily, while a referendum would fix a tax increase permanently.

"Isn't it a fact," asked Representative Joseph Gill, "that the people of Chicago are in no mood for tax increases? We were told last session that the 16th assembly was the most extravagant on record. Now we are swamped with protests against high tax bills. What about it?"

"Do you think the people want the schools closed?" said Mr. Caldwell. "Might Close Schools."

"Well," Representative Rategan retorted, "it might be a good idea at that to close them for a couple of weeks and let the people know what a pass things are coming to. There's one thing worse than turning the kids out on the streets—that is turning home owners out on the street because they cannot pay their taxes."

Frank S. Righelmer and Thomas Sullivan, attorneys for the board, explained the bill. Other spokesmen for it included Daniel Beebe, representing Supt. W. G. Bogan, Mrs. J. Neal, district superintendent, and John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor. Miss Margaret Haley, business manager of the Chicago Teacher's federation, opposed the bill on the ground that it was a plot to upset the tax reassessment which the federation is helping to sponsor.

Print 600,000 Pamphlets. In reply to charges by Miss Haley, the school board officials admitted they are having printed 600,000 pamphlets to be distributed through the school children to their parents with a view to obtaining their approval of the tax increase.

New York, April 23.—(AP)—Former Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois returned today with Mrs. Lowden and their son and daughter from a four month pleasure trip to Egypt, Palestine, and Greece. They arrived on the Italian liner Augustus.

Having been out of touch with political questions for some time, Mr. Lowden declined to comment on President Hoover's opposition to the debenture certificate plan as a means of farm relief. ## CITY HALL SEES 'EASY MONEY' IN NEW BOND LAW

Cash In on Special Assessments.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

A new law by which the city administration hopes to get more money for permanent improvements—and to get it more easily and faster—has been passed by both houses of the legislature and signed by the governor. The scheme provides for the issuance of bonds by an improved method of special assessments. It was reported at the city hall yesterday that the city administration was represented as a great aid in the presentation of public improvements and one enthusiast said that it will result in the mayor as "Big Bill, the Mayor."

Same as 1927 Bill.

The details on how it is to be worked out were lacking. Nothing had been said about this bill until yesterday. It is practically the same as the bill presented to the 1927 session of the general assembly and then killed. At that time it was favored by Frederick Dockstader, attorney for the town of Winnetka, and Elmer Jackson, attorney for Kenilworth. Mr. Dickinson is said to have sponsored the bill at this time and the Illinois Municipal League is said to have become interested in it.

On the face of its support, it looked like a small down measure, but Gottlieb Dockstader, attorney for the Chicago board of local improvements, is said to be elated over its passage. He is reported to have said that with it, the board of local improvements can get its new life.

The board has not stood well in public since April 10, 1923, when voters defeated city bond issues totaling $77,500,000 by a vote of approximately two to one. The schedule of bonds was revised and scaled down and submitted to the voters last November. The total at that time was $144,000,000 but these too were defeated.

By Revive Improvements.

According to the interpretation of the new law by some attorneys, the board of local improvements can revive some of the improvements on which the public has voted "no." In the bonds issues of last April, there was $45,000,000 for unfinished major improvements, and $21,500,000 for new local projects.

City officials, according to yesterday's rumor, hope to revive all of the

GIRL REPORTER'S LAST STORY: NOTES JOTTED IN FATAL AIR TRIP

Los Angeles, Cal., April 23.—(AP)—Notes jotted down by Miss Cecelia Kelly, 28, reporter for the Phoenix Evening Gazette, who was one of the Maddux air liner passengers killed when the plane crashed with an army plane at San Diego last Sunday, appeared in print today as her last story.

Miss Kelly was preparing a feature story for the newspaper just before the collision. The memorandum, published here and in Phoenix, may figure as evidence in the investigation of the crash. They were found in the wreckage of the plane.

The notes read: "Sea gulls white. Gobs. Destroyers. I. A. Shops. Other planes. Fleet. Army plane. Stunting. Near Mexico. Lakes. Red particles of earth. Shining big sea. Water. Golden path of afternoon sun. Green smooth place."

new street improvements and some parts of the unfinished improvements.

The bonds to be issued for these street improvements, according to the city hall interpretation of the new law, do not require a referendum. If this view is correct, and they cited a state Supreme court decision, City of Quincy versus Kemper, Illinois reports, No. 304, as evidence—and the new law is valid and the bonds are marketable, then the city administration can start street improvements on a large scale again without consulting the voters.

Under the new law, according to one attorney, the city can declare an improvement to be the widening of a street, spread a special assessment for it and then issue bonds to pay for the property. The city would not be required to improve the street with either pavement or sidewalks, according to this interpretation. The new law can be applied to any improvement not yet confirmed in court.

City Officials Hopeful.

Whether the scheme can be worked successfully in Chicago remains to be seen, but there is no doubt that certain friends of the city administration believe it will be utilized successfully. It was pointed out by one city official yesterday that it should appeal to the property owner.

"It makes it much easier on him," he explained. "He can't buy a piano on installments extending over twenty years, nor even a house and lot. The bond buyer will be protected by the installments, just as the bond buyer on a cooperative apartment building is paid from the installments paid by the purchasers of the flats."

In the opinion of an alderman not so friendly with the administration the new law is just another means of getting cash out of the pockets of property owners. He said he believed there is some new "wrinkle" in the amended law, because the present law permits the issuance of special assessment bonds for ten years.

HEFLIN FIGHTS CATHOLIC CHURCH FOR KU KLUX GOLD

Rebuked by Gillett as Crowd Roars.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., April 23.—[Special.]—Riotous laughter and applause from senate gallery crowds followed the rebuke administered today to Senator J. Thomas Hefflin (Dem., Ala.) when Senator Frederick H. Gillett (Rep., Mass.) decried the Alabama's use of his senatorial prestige for remuneration as professional stump speaker.

At the height of Hefflin's protest against the "reprehensible and criminal conduct" of youths who sought to break up a Klan meeting he was addressing in Brockton, Mass., last March, the venerable Gillett interrupted to ask if Hefflin was paid for his Brockton and other anti-Catholic speeches.

Different If You Are Paid.
"Well, that makes the situation quite different," declared Senator Gillett after Hefflin admitted he was paid. When the laughter which swept the galleries subsided, Senator Gillett went on to point out the distinction between a senator who goes before the country in behalf of a great cause expecting nothing and another senator who "uses his prestige for remuneration."

Hefflin, pleading for the passage of a resolution to denounce the searing mob which gathered outside the Brockton hall and pelted his automobile with stones and bottles, defended his acceptance of "honorariums" for his attacks upon the Catholic church by saying, "I am not so rich as some—I earn what I get and certainly earned it at Brockton."

Crowd Titters Again.
The crowd tittered again when Senator Gillett declared that passage of the resolution would accomplish nothing because "doubtless the authorities of Brockton regret that the bottle was thrown, and doubtless the man who threw the bottle and missed the senator and hit a policeman regrets that, too." Senator W. E. Borah (Rep., Ida.) insisted that Hefflin's resolution would condemn persons as criminal without an investigation.

Borah Takes a Hand.
"It does not hurt the man so much as the senate," argued Senator Borah. "No man should be denied the right of free speech and to practice that the religion he chooses. But the senate cannot pass a resolution denouncing a man as a criminal without giving him a chance to be heard." Angered by what he termed the "ridiculous attitude" of Senator Borah and the suggestion of an investigation which he said would delay consideration of the resolution "until doomsday" Hefflin launched into a new harangue against the Roman Catholic political machine which was cut short at 2 p. m., when the resolution went to the calendar automatically.

HE HURT IN AUTO WRECK.
Lebanon, Ind., April 23.—[Special.]—Six persons, from Elletts, Mich., and South Bend, Ind., were injured near here today when their automobile turned over in avoiding collision with another machine. All six are in a Rochester hospital.

FEAR 100 DEAD AS JAPANESE SHIP SINKS ON ROCKS

Rescue Craft Pick Up 97 Survivors.

TOKIO, April 23.—[AP.]—More than a hundred persons were believed drowned when the Japanese steamship Toyo Kuni Maru sank a few minutes after striking rocks off Cape Edo in Southern Hokkaido.

The vessel sank so quickly there was only time to send out a single S. O. S. Two steamers which reached the scene early this morning, several hours after the sinking, picked up 97 persons. Two hundred and nine were known to have been aboard when the ship sailed for Hakodate yesterday. Several naval craft left Ominato to aid in the search but it was feared there was small prospect for other survivors.

One hundred and seventy-six of the passengers carried by the steamer were fishermen bound for Kamohatka, where they were to fish for crabs during the summer.

The disaster was believed due to bad weather in the wake of last Sunday's hurricane, which was followed by a gale and a snowstorm off the coast of Hokkaido.

Tribune Article Praised by Hungarian-Americans

BRITISH INQUIRY REVEALS VESTRIS OVERLOAD IN 1926

(Copyright, 1929, by the New York Times.)
LONDON, April 23.—The long memory of the British board of trade and its careful scrutiny of log books of British merchant ships, even though they may never touch an English port for years, was revealed today at the inquiry into the sinking of the Lamport & Holt liner Vestriss, with the loss of 112 lives, off the Virginia capes last November.

The question of the overloading of the Vestriss on her voyages between

New York and South America arose and W. N. Raeburn, counsel for the board of trade, drew the attention of Alfred Woods, general manager of the Lamport & Holt line, Ltd., to correspondence on this subject at the end of 1926. Sanderson & Co., the firm's New York agents, had replied that the allegation that the Vestriss left her wharf overloaded was true but before proceeding to sea sufficient water had been pumped out to bring her to the proper level.

Mr. Raeburn then asked: "Have you any reason to suspect that the Vestriss was pumped out before leaving New York on this last trip?"

Mr. Woods replied: "According to all information, that wasn't done."

This paradox is quite easily explained by "Delmar" Chiffon Hose. So cobwebby sheer are they, so golden-smooth are their Sun-Tan shades, that the effect is far lovelier than anything that Nature could achieve alone. Besides they come in such a variety of colors, melting from rose-flushed beige to deep cafe-au-lait, that you are spared the usual difficulties of matching the tan of your arms and legs.

YANK PRESSURE MAY SAVE PARLEY ON GERMAN DEBT

Schacht Urged to Raise Offer to Allies.

BY HENRY WALES.

PARIS, April 23.—Despite the enormous disparity existing between the allied reparations demands and Germany's offer, hope was held out tonight that the Owen D. Young commission of financial experts may find a solution to their chief problem within the next ten days. This hope rested on the pressure which it is reported the American delegates are applying to force a settlement.

Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, the chief German delegate, will remain in Paris to serve as a member of the new subcommittee formed today to draft the initial report on the points on which an agreement has already been reached. A resolution was also adopted urging the delegates of all the powers to continue their efforts to arrive at an accord on the amount and the number of the annuities which Germany must pay. The conference is now deadlocked on these figures.

Yankies Urge New German Offer. The chief delegates of the other six powers including Mr. Young will work with Dr. Schacht in outlining the report on the points settled on. They include the creation of an international bank, figures on the amount of deliveries in kind, the payment and the division of the annuities into unconditional and postponable parts, and several other matters.

The American delegation is strongly urging the Germans to revise their offer. It is said, in order to meet more nearly the creditor nations' requirements, and the feeling exists that the Berlin government may authorize Dr. Schacht to increase his figures to within striking range of the allied requirements within the next ten days.

Faces $595,000,000 Payments. The point is stressed that the Rhineland remains occupied by foreign troops and that Germany is committed to the payment of $595,000,000 annually under the Dawes plan unless the problem is finally settled by the existing conference. The Germans have also been warned that if the present conference ends in a fiasco there is small chance of the United States government authorizing Americans to participate in any future parley which may be called to tackle the question.

German Chancellor Scores Experts.

BERLIN, April 23.—The German press tonight expresses satisfaction that the negotiations for the reparations are continuing in Paris, but Chancellor Hermann Mueller in the Reichstag said he deeply regretted "that the conference was not adhering to its original purpose."

"The business experts were to establish the amount of reparations Germany can pay without succumbing," he continued. "Instead the conference talked on only two problems: the payment by Germany of the allies' debts to America and Germany's payments for losses incurred through destructions of war."

The leader of the Nationalist party, Count Westarp, interrupted Chancellor Mueller to declare Germany must refuse to pay the reparations "imposed on her on the strength of the theory of her war guilt, which does not exist."

"We are not paying on account of war guilt tales, but because we lost the war," Chancellor Mueller replied. He was the first chancellor in Germany in the last ten years who has had courage enough to say from the rostrum of the Reichstag that his country lost the war.

OLD DOC CARTER TOO BUSY; QUACK TRIAL IS DELAYED

In St. Louis at the College of Surgeons there.

Attorney Interrupts Story.

"But the president of the college said you were never enrolled there," interrupted Anderson.

"I came to Chicago," continued Plakas. "I made application to Springfield for examination. I got a card telling me to go to the county hospital. I went there and took the examination. Then I got a card telling me I had passed. And later a letter came with this diploma."

Cross examination of Plakas indicated plainly that he had never taken the examination. A woman clerk from Springfield testified that there was no record of any application on his part nor had he ever taken the examination or received the diploma. "This man's a plain perjurer," said

Ditchburne. "He's in contempt of your honor."

Just then, however, a circus giant, some eight feet tall, entered the courtroom. The judge stopped the trial to welcome him and gazed admiringly at his huge figure. The judge explained that the giant and he were old friends.

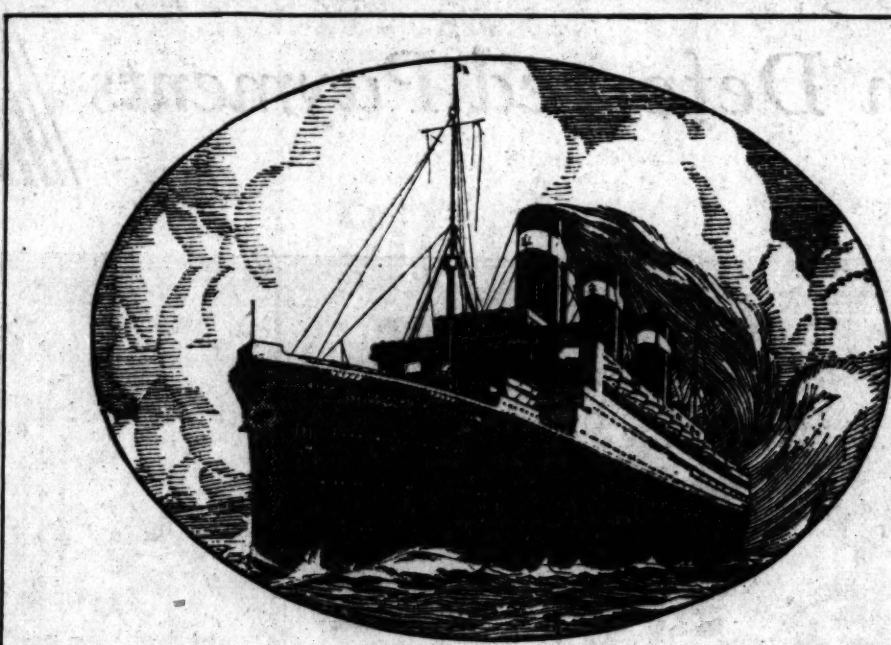

Reverting to the case before him, Judge Erickson told Plakas: "I can't get myself to think you're telling the truth. There'll be a finding of guilty here, gentlemen. I can't help it. What do you think the sentence should be?"

There was some haggling between attorneys. It was pointed out that Plakas' violation was flagrant and that the law allowed a maximum sentence of one year. The judge finally imposed a sentence of sixty days in jail and also ordered the defendant to pay a $100 fine.

Tough Road Ahead, but Wife and Ex-Wife Stay Jail Term

Sioux City, Ia., April 23.—[Special.]

Charged with failure to pay alimony to his first wife and their two children and with nonsupport of his second wife and their two children, Alfred Van Winkle looked forward to a dreary three months in the county jail when the two women finally agreed it would be better to have him at liberty where he could work and divide his money between them. So he was released from jail.

13 ELLER AIDS GO ON TRIAL FOR THIRD TIME TODAY

Cornford Denies Plea for Change of Venue.

CRIMINAL COURT.
San Wilson, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 20 years in the penitentiary by Judge Thomas Taylor.
Jesse Johnson, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary by Judge D. J. Nemo.
Charles L. Geske, murder, sentenced to the Chester asylum for the criminal insane by Judge Charles A. Williams.
Harry B. Chambers, burglary, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary by Judge Harry B. Miller.
Harry Meyers and Robert Manning, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary by Judge G. Fred Bush.

With the selection of a jury today the thirteen henchmen of City Collector Morris Eller, who were acquitted four days ago on a charge of kidnaping in the bloody 20th ward at the primary of April 10, 1928, again will go to trial on almost identical charges. The new trial, the third for the defendants, was called after Judge Frank D. Comerford denied motions for a change of venue and a continuance.

The defendants were freed on the charge of kidnaping Russell B. Sampson, bar association worker, Saturday. At that time Defense Attorney Michael Ahearn demanded an immediate trial for the kidnaping of C. Roy Hansen. Both men were kidnaped at the same time from the same polling place at 1688 Polk street.

Plead for Continuance.
Yesterday Defense Attorneys Ben Short and Thomas Nash asked a continuance, pleading that they were exhausted by their recent efforts. Judge Comerford denied the motion holding that the case had been set on Attorney Ahearn's demand.

"Then, because of the remarks made by the court last Saturday, when the court called the jury before it to investigate the verdict, we feel the court is prejudiced, and ask a change of venue," Attorney Nash said.

"The court said that the verdict in the previous case was a raping of justice," Nash continued. "It said that all the defendants had to do was hire clever lawyers to go free by confusing and blinding the issues in the minds of the jurors. The court intimated that the incident of Isham Smith, who identified a juror, was merely an opening wedge in a plot to win the case."

Judge Comerford declared that those statements appeared in the newspapers and that he was not bound by such quotations. He denied having made implications against the defense lawyers.

Denies Change of Venue.
Chief Prosecutor Edwin J. Raber asked for a decision on the request for a change of venue.

"A motion for a change of venue is very unfair," the judge said. "If a judge grants it, it is tantamount to an admission that he has failed in his oath of office, and that he cannot keep his mind free and impartial. A change of venue cannot be used as a dilatory motion, to secure a continuance. It is denied."

The judge ordered the case transferred from the county building to the Criminal courts building, to which he will return, despite his denunciation of its courtrooms at the opening of the last trial.

WOMAN 55 KILLED BY TRAIN.
Valparaiso, Ind., April 23.—(Special.)—Miss Mary Todd, 55, was killed today by a fast train on a crossing in Wheeler.

VOICE DEMAND FOR COMPULSORY SERVICE IN WAR

Army Men Address
Reserve Officers.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 23.—(Special.)—Overwhelming sentiment in favor of compulsory military service in time of war and expansion of present civilian training was expressed here today at the principal session of the three day annual convention of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States.

Col. Walter Cole, Detroit, was elected president of the association. Brig. Gen. Edward Orton Jr., Columbus, O., was elected vice president; Maj. H. K. Bentley, Washington, D. C., treasurer; Maj. William Stevens, bishop of the Episcopal church at Los Angeles, Cal., chaplain.

The convention voted to meet in 1930 at Los Angeles.

Maj. Gen. Dennis E. Dolan, commanding the Fifth army corps area, told the convention that amendment of the national defense act to provide for compulsory war time service should be made the first objective of all veterans and military organizations. He said the American Legion and the 100 world war veterans now in congress are supporting this program.

Civilian Soldier Training.

Immediate increase of the appropriation for civilian soldier training was advocated by Col. Charles B. Robbins, former assistant secretary of war.

Maj. Gen. Frank Parker, commanding general of the sixth army corps area; Col. A. J. Dougherty, chief of staff, Eighty-fourth division reserve, and Brig. Gen. George H. Jamerson, commander of Fort Harrison here, also spoke.

Patrick J. Hurley, assistant secretary of war, in the principal address of the day, pointed out that the nation's policy of alert preparedness is not in conflict with the country's ideals of peace.

U. S. Must Be Prepared.

"The United States has no imperialistic policy," he said. "We wish only for international amity and good will. But so long as there still are nations which believe in rule by force, this country must be prepared until war is outlawed. We must be prepared to protect the institutions which we have labored so hard to build and for the happiness and prosperity of our people. We must bring into the reserve the members of the 235 college R. O. T. C. units.

"Members of the reserve corps at this time are largely war veterans. Our task is to endow the younger men with the idea that they must carry on the reserve."

Only by continued preparedness can the United States remain the force it now is in world peace efforts was the warning of Gen. Charles F. Sumner, all, chief of staff of the United States army.

Charge Dubuque Hotel Man Diverts $48,000 to Own Use

Dubuque, Ia., April 23.—(Special.)—Charges that Harold C. Hayes, Chicago president, treasurer and a director of the Dubuque Hotels company, operator of the Julien Dubuque hotel, diverted $48,000 of the corporate funds to his own personal use are made by Leroy Harris and Henry Brooks, Chicago, minority stockholders, in an action in equity filed today in the District court. An injunction is asked to prevent disposition of any assets of the company.

None but her unmistakable genius could create such gorgeous color and line. The scalloped coat hangs in cape effect, showing flashes of the same brilliant Greens, Reds and Yellows which dominate in the print design of the trousers and blouse. It is, of course, equally stunning for beach or boudoir wear. Other copies vary from this in their plain-tone effects... but all are striking, and all are very, very new. $55.

COLLINS ICE CREAM

ONE of the many pleasant things Chicagoans remember about the World's Fair of 1893, is the delicious Ice Cream that was so daintily served in that never-to-be-forgotten dreamland in Jackson Park and the Midway.

After serving the public with pure, wholesome Ice Cream since 1887, Collins obtained the exclusive concession for serving this delectable food and refreshment to the millions of people who patronized the Fair. Here was an opportunity that Collins took advantage of and the popularity of his Ice Cream today is due in a great measure to the advertising given the real genuine article that was served at the World's Fair.

In the years that followed, Collins continued his fight for better and purer Ice Cream. Mr. Collins, President of the Collins Ice Cream Company says, "There is only one way to make good Ice Cream and that is to use pure sweet cream, pure cane sugar as nature gave it to us, the finest fruits that money will buy, flavoring that is made from the pure Mexican and Bourbon beans, and then manufacture it under the most sanitary methods in the finest modern plant in the world. Collins Ice Cream, the purest and best that is possible to make, has always been and always will be made in that way."

When Ice Cream is made under the original Collins' formula, you can safely eat it and feed it to young children, for its cream has been pasteurized, it is rich—it is pure, just what growing children need. Ask your doctor.

You will find the Collins Ice Cream in only the best places in Chicago. Collins wants his Ice Cream to reach you in the same good condition the dealer receives it. His ambition is to make Chicago the best Ice Cream city in the United States, and he solicits the interest of every Chicagoan to help make it so. Collins will make that good Ice Cream and you DEMAND IT.

Collins' dealers pay more money for the Collins Ice Cream, but it is worth more! It is strictly a quality Ice Cream, and at the same time can be bought from your druggist for 65c per quart. This same cream made by caterers would have to retail for 90c or $1.00 per quart, but the Collins' manner of distribution and the enormous business bring Collins Ice Cream within reach of everybody.

We want to call your attention to one thing—you will not find any of our bulk or brick Ice Cream machine filled—all brick creams are molded separate, placed in cold storage rooms until sold, and then taken out, cut and wrapped.

Just take a quart or brick home to the family—tell them it's the NEW Ice Cream—see what they think of it! We'll consider the expense of this announcement wasted, if from the the kiddies up, you do not pronounce Collins Ice Cream the best in Chicago!

SMIDDY OUTLINES IRELAND'S RICHES UNDER OWN RULE

Chief Handicap to Nation
Is Lure of U. S., He Says

(Copyright: 1929, by the New York Times.)
LONDON, April 23.—Timothy Smiddy, for seven years minister to Washington from the Irish Free State and now high commissioner from his country to London, gave a graphic account today before members of the American Chamber of Commerce of the present condition of Ireland.

After telling how the constitution of Ireland, the newest sovereign state in the British empire, had been based on the American Declaration of Independence, Mr. Smiddy related the amazing progress made under the constitution within the short period of seven years. He said the situation was a surprising revelation to many Americans who from force of habit considered Ireland as a downtrodden country. On the contrary, she is very much up and coming, he said.

Irish Pugnacious? No!
Mr. Smiddy first told of the judiciary system, under which a judge's tenure of office depends entirely on his judiciary and legal merit, absolutely independent of political or religious influences. In proof of this he said five out of nine judges of the high court are non-Catholic, although the population of the country is almost wholly Catholic.

Another popular misconception Mr. Smiddy tried to correct was that the Irish people are pugnacious, always seeking a brawl. As a matter of fact, he said, no member of the Irish police force is allowed to carry arms of any kind, but disorders are steadily decreasing and the present jail population is less than half of what it was under the old régime of English government.

"Dublin castle, once synonym of oppression," said Mr. Smiddy, "is now the seat of the people's court of justice."

Tells of Progress.
With sovereignty and good order as a basis to build on, Mr. Smiddy told of the progress made by his people economically, industrially, and socially in the last seven years, despite handicaps still remaining. One of these handicaps is the persistent lure of America to the Irish people.

"The problem of emigration is a serious one for the Irish Free State," he said. "More than 30,000 of the best men go away annually, 25,000 of these to the United States. To some extent this exodus is the result of economic conditions inasmuch as the growth in population is quicker than industrial development. But the main factor is the lure of greater opportunities in America and the great attraction there of kinsmen emigrants. An average person in Ireland has as many relatives in America as in the home country."

However, those who stay at home are doing so well that, according to Mr. Smiddy, "Ireland is not the poor country she is generally supposed to be, but, on the contrary, is one of the few creditor nations of Europe. Her citizens have invested in foreign stocks and bonds upward of a billion dollars, from which they derive annually dividends of more than $55,000,000. Deposits in banks in the Irish Free State amount to $780,000,000, showing an increase of 158 per cent over the pre-war period. Postoffice savings deposits have doubled to $24,000,000. The national debt is now $133,000,000, which is $13,000,000 less than last year's national revenue. This is one of the smallest national debts in Europe. Nearly a third of it was raised in New York and Ireland itself."

JERITZA HURT IN FALL ON STAGE, BUT PLAYS ON

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
VIENNA, Austria, April 23.—The heroic endurance of the opera star, Maria Jeritza, on the stage of the state opera last night is the talk of the town.

Mme. Jeritza sang the rôle of Santuzza in Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana." During the scene in front of the church in which she falls down the steps, she played the part realistically that she actually fell, cutting her arms and hands. She continued to play her part, wiping off the blood with her robe. During a stage wait she was treated by a doctor but played her rôle to the end. Mme. Jeritza received a great ovation from the house at the end of the opera.

St. Louis, Mo., April 23.—(P)—Gasoline, oil, and merchandise estimated to have been worth $300,000 were destroyed in a spectacular fire accompanied by a series of explosions after an inbound freight train was derailed in South Kirkwood, St. Louis suburb, early today. No loss of life was reported.

Wife Shot Four Times by Husband; Will Recover

Mrs. Josephine Dick, 18 years old, who was shot four times yesterday by her husband, William, will recover, physicians said last night at Montrose Avenue hospital. The shooting occurred in the home of the girl's mother, Mrs. Catherine Galley, 2437 Cullom avenue. The couple had separated two months ago. The husband said he shot his wife because she laughed at him when he was fondling their seven month old daughter.

ANTI-VIVISECTION SOCIETY GIVES UP FIGHT FOR BILL

But Asks Exemption of Dogs from Practice.

Conceding failure on the part of his organization to prove its case against the proponents of vivisection as cruel and inhuman practitioners, Clarence E. Richard, president of the Illinois Anti-Vivisection society yesterday announced that permission would be asked to withdraw senate bill No. 221, which makes vivisection illegal in Illinois. A personal letter to each state senator contained this news.

Want Dogs Exempted.
"True to our pledge that we would not ask you gentlemen to support the anti-vivisection bill unless we could convince you of the justification for the law we seek," the letter explained, "we are withdrawing the present measure and wish to substitute one which merely exempts dogs from the practice."

"It is evident that the Illinois Anti-Vivisection society has failed to convince members of the senate public health committee that vivisection is what this society charges—a useless, cruel, and archaic practice."

Paying "Heaviest Toll."
"We believe, however, that testimony before Senator Mills' committee conclusively proved that nothing of value has been learned from experiments upon dogs; that there is no analogy between the anatomy of a dog and that of a human, and that dogs, by reason of their intelligence and docility, are paying the heaviest toll of all the animals sacrificed upon the altar of science."

Fire Alarm Starts $75,000
Blaze, Burns Fire House

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
TORONTO, Ont., April 23.—A short-circuit in Merritt's fire alarm system today caused a $75,000 blaze which destroyed the town hall and the fire brigade's headquarters with all the fire equipment. Elizabeth Barling, stenographer, stuck to a telephone in the blazing building, calling firemen from other towns, until she was overcome by smoke.

HARDY SAYS HE GOT REPORTS FOR AIMEE FROM DETECTIVES

Sacramento, Cal., April 23.—(AP)—Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy of Los Angeles, today testified at his impeachment trial here that he received reports from detectives employed to investigate the kidnapping story of Aimee Semple McPherson. Hardy, charged in one of the impeachment articles with obstructing justice in the investigation of Mrs. McPherson's story, admitted conferring with the evangelist's attorneys on the employment of detectives, and also said he received reports from the investigators sent to Carmel. The jurist, however, denied having employed or counseled attorneys for the evangelist.

The defendant said he conferred many times with Mrs. Minnie E. Kennedy, mother of Mrs. McPherson, between the disappearance of the daughter and her reappearance at Douglas, Ariz.

"We thought Mrs. McPherson was drowned," he said.
Hardy declared nothing was ever said of compensation for his work in behalf of Angelus temple, nor did he ever expect "any monetary compensation."

Hardy denied ever saying to one of the grand jurors investigating the "kidnaping" story, "you fellows lay off the Aimee case." He also denied discussing with Mrs. Wiseman-Stoloff, a previous witness for the prosecution, the possibility of finding a woman to pose as the alleged companion of Ormiston at Carmel and to be known as "Miss X."

WIT OF BOY, 10, SAVES TWO WHEN BUILDING FALLS

A ten year old boy played the hero rôle yesterday afternoon when two workmen were buried in the collapse of a wall of a building at 417 South Hoyne avenue. His quick wit saved the lives of two workers. The boy, Tommy Buetow, 439 South Hoyne avenue, was gathering kindling wood when he heard the crash of the building, which the workmen were wrecking.

In vain Tommy sought aid at a nearby elevated station. Then he raced to a fire engine house at Hoyne avenue and Van Buren street, a block away. The workmen, Harry Davis, 28 years old, 16 Waverly court, and Don Wilson, 18 years old, 2210 Adams street, were unconscious when rescued, but at the county hospital last night it was said that they had a good chance for recovery.

TAX REFUND TO ASTOR ESTATE IS $4,635,530

Washington, D. C., April 23.—(Special.)—Tax refunds totaling $5,483,512 awarded in seven different cases were announced today by the internal revenue bureau. It was the first announcement under the new policy inaugurated by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon for publicity of refund decisions.

The largest refund was $4,635,530 to the estate of William Waldorf Astor of New York. This refund was due to a decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the second circuit in a case brought by the Farmers' Loan and Trust company as trustee for the estate.

Other refunds included $31,512 to the Dallas Brass and Copper company, Chicago.

The explanation given in the case of the Chicago company was that the refund was based on "a redetermination of the profits tax liability under the provisions of sections 527 and 528 of the revenue act of 1913, due to the existence of abnormal conditions affecting the taxpayers' capital and income."

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BURNED.
Mrs. Mary Jacob, 28 years old, 15506 Avenue M, was seriously burned yesterday by an explosion of kerosene she was using to start a fire. Her daughter, Sophie, 12 years old, also was burned when she went to the aid of her mother. Both were taken to the South Chicago hospital.

MAN IN SUICIDE PACT DELIVERS GIRL'S BODY, DIES

Colorado Springs, Colo., April 23.—(AP)—Allen Carey, 35 years old, died today from the effects of poison four hours after he had driven here from a secluded spot in the mountains with the body of Ruth Davis, 17 years old, also a victim of poison.

Carey said he entered into a suicide pact with the girl. She took the poison first and died Sunday.

Carey's wife and two children live at Grand Rapids, Mich.

Miss Davis' father had forbidden her to see Carey. Carey formerly lived at the printers' home here.

Carey became paralyzed after taking the poison, but revived Monday and attempted suicide by slashing his wrists. The first attempt failed. Recovering strength, he placed the girl's body in his car this morning and returned here. After taking a drink of water he collapsed.

With the average yearly value of the Harmon property increasing 37% to several hundred per cent, the real estate purchaser can foresee quite accurately how large a yearly income he will make on his investment.

Records show that the corner of 7th and Evans was sold for $100,000 four years ago. The Chicago State Bank bought it for $100,000, or at the rate of $1,000 per foot. Before building was started, it was offered at $250,000, which they accepted. This property sold originally at $125 per foot, and in a short time brought at the rate of $1,000 per foot.

Such examples prove the wisdom of the advice of the Harmon Realty Trust: Buy and hold good property for maximum return on your investment.

ATLANTIC FLYING
SOON TO BE PUT ON SOUND BASIS

Roosevelt Field Prepares for Summer Rush.

BY ROBERT WOOD.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
New York, April 23.—(Special.)—As the month of May rolls around the corner bringing with it the second anniversary of Lindbergh's trans-Atlantic flight, historic Roosevelt field is preparing for a seasonal rush of foreign flyers bound for American shores and American flyers with new planes and new wrinkles in nonstop flying to try out.

While the flyers at the Long Island field now regard trans-Atlantic flying not as history-making adventure, but as a fashionable sport, it is freely predicted here that the flight experiments this summer will lay the first sound basis for regular scheduled flying from continent to continent.

Seaworthy Craft Tuned Up.

Aircraft designed to be seaworthy will be introduced for the first time in May and June. Chief among the ships are the giant British dirigible R-100, a leviathan of the air, embodying most of the comforts and attractions of the ocean steamer, and the sea going German flying boat, the Rohrbach Romar.

In addition to these new ships, the Graf Zeppelin will sail again for American shores around May 10. On the itinerary of the Graf are two additional flights to New York before the summer is over and a projected round the world cruise in three hops.

AVIATION NOTES

Chicago's future as a center of commercial aviation is brighter than that of any other city in the world, according to Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, America's premier world war ace, who spoke yesterday at a luncheon at the Rotary club in the Hotel Sherman.

"Chicago can be made the air transport center of the western hemisphere," he declared. "Very few cities have similar advantages of waterfront and flat ground."

Maj. P. G. Kemp of Chicago, distributor for the Great Lakes Aircraft company in the states of Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, has placed an order for an additional 125 planes with the company, it was announced yesterday at the factory in Cleveland. This brings the total of Maj. Kemp's orders for 1929 to 230 ships, with a total value of $1,700,000. The Trainer, a new combination sports and training plane, will constitute the bulk of the order.

Aerial surveys are being made over a route from cities in Central America to Port of Spain, Trinidad, with a view to establishing a regular air mail service, according to dispatches yesterday.

Air tours covering the British Isles in as short a time as two days are to be offered American tourists this year, according to an announcement from the Travel Association of Great Britain and Ireland.

To Wales. Three stops are planned in 70 hours of flying from Argentina to Brazil, Senegal, West Africa, and Seville.

Northern Route to Be Tried. The Swedish airman, Albin Ahrenberg, will attempt to fly the northern route across Greenland and Iceland to America which Bert Hassell and Parker Cramer attempted last year. He will fly in a Junker monoplane fitted with pontoons to permit landing on water, snow or ice. His backer, Astor Kreuger, a Swedish match merchant, plans to follow Ahrenberg over most of the journey in a plane of the same type. The destination is New York.

Hassell and Cramer are planning to retrace the Viking trail they first laid out. Chicago is in the itinerary of the two Polish military flyers who are planning an east to west crossing from Warsaw to New York and westward across the United States. Their flight, which they plan for May, is being backed by Chicago Polish-Americans.

William Brook and Edward Bohles, Detroit sportsmen, are secretly planning a series of spectacular flights, according to gossip among flyers here. One of them, it is reported, is a race in Lockheed monoplanes across the north Atlantic, one ship flying east and the other west.

MISS SMITH, 17,
ALOFT IN EFFORT TO BREAK RECORD

Roosevelt Field, L. I., April 24 (Wednesday).—(Special.)—Miss Ellen Smith, 17, who is attempting to regain the world's endurance flight record for women, still was circling over Roosevelt and Mitchell fields early today in her Biplane, plane, the engine performing perfectly.

She took off at 11:40 A. M. yesterday and still was flying at 3:30 this morning, at which hour she had been in the air 15 hours and 50 minutes.

When she took off the gasoline tanks in her plane contained 24½ gallons of fuel, which was believed to be sufficient for 24 hours, the goal she had set. To better the unofficial woman's record, now held by Louise McPhetridge, she must remain aloft for more than 22 hours 3 minutes and 12 seconds. This time will have elapsed this morning at 5:45.

2 Canadian Amateur Flyers
Die in Burning Plane Crash

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
TORONTO, April 23.—(Special.)—Two Canadian amateur flyers, were instantly killed this evening when their plane burst into flames at the Toronto Flying club at Leaside. The bodies were terribly burned. Mr. Marshall, was the son of Col. Noel Marshall, nationally known in Canada for his Red Cross work. Mr. MacKenzie was the grand-nephew of the Canadian National railway. Both were brokers with Stobie, Furlong & Co.

AUSTRIAN RISES
OVER A MILE IN
GLIDER; RECORD

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
GERSFELDE, April 23.—The Vienna aviator, Karl Kronfeldt, flying through snow clouds and swarms of butterflies, today established a new world record for altitude for motorless gliding planes, reaching a height of 8,880 feet above the town of Neustadt.

Kronfeldt's flight lasted three and a half hours. Starting on a hill, Kronfeldt first swept through snow clouds and then found himself in a swarm of butterflies.

He finally made a bad landing at Bruckenauf after improving the existing record by 1,440 feet. He was flying a new type of glider built by an airplane company at Kegal.

PLANE TO BOMB
NEW YORK CITY
NIGHT OF MAY 21

Washington, D. C., April 23.—(Special.)—A night "bombing" raid upon New York City by a new giant army bombing plane, striking at the metropolis from far inland, is planned by the army air corps on the night of May 21, as the principal spectacle in connection with the air corps maneuvers over Ohio, May 15 to 25, the war department announced today.

Great parachute flares dropped over the city will simulate the giant explosive bombs which an enemy air raider might hurl in actual warfare.

Chicago-to-Nome Flyers

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, April 23.—(Special.)—Completing the flight from Dawson to Fairbanks, about 250 miles in three hours, Parker Cramer and W. S. Gamble, Chicago to Nome flyers, landed here at 7 A. M., today.

A finer car and for the FEW

PIERCE-ARROW has never been a car for the crowd. It couldn't be made in great numbers—and still be a Pierce-Arrow. The new Straight Eight is an example of why this is so.

Created by an expanding Pierce-Arrow organization—with vast resources in material and man-power—this ultra modern automobile is fine because its processes are individualized. Rare hand-craftsmanship is present throughout—every detail exquisitely wrought in the finest Pierce-Arrow tradition.

This new and most appealing Straight Eight will, of course, be widely sought. Its slender, low-swung grace finds instant favor with fine car owners, grown tired of stodginess and bulk.

Even so, fine car owners are in the minority, and there are just so many Pierce-Arrows—never so many as to become commonplace. Nor is this exclusiveness a matter of cost, as today's price range will evidence. It's just that Pierce-Arrow is made so fine it cannot be made for the many.

Coal Mining Business in Illinois Stages Comeback

BY SCRUTATOR.

Coal mining in Illinois, as compared with the industry as a whole in the United States, began a comeback last year and is continuing progress in 1929.

The 1928 mark of 58 million tons was more by ten millions than the 1927 output. But it was considerably behind the 1926 record of 69 million and far lower than the peak of production, 83 million tons, reached during the war. The bright feature lies in the fact that the country's coal consumption last year was less than in the previous twelve months period.

Stimulus to Illinois mines is being given by the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, which is conducting a campaign to urge consumers with business interests in the state to patronize home industry. The necessity for such work is pointed out in the chamber's publication by several writers. One of the points made is that although Illinois has coal beds extending under 67 per cent of the entire area, only about half the coal consumed in the state comes from that vast store of natural wealth. The remaining supply is imported from other states.

Figures on Depression.
Edward A. Wielek, one of the commentators, has developed figures showing the general depression caused in the southern part of the state by the falling off of the trade in coal after the war. Even in 1926, he stated, the 69 million tons of coal were brought out by 77,732 men, who worked an average of only 155 days in the year. Mining sections he considered "sore spots in the economic life of the state" as long as employment is on a half time basis, or even less.

The coal towns of Illinois grew up individually. In some states they are company owned and trade goes to company stores. The miners of Illinois to a much greater extent than in common, own their homes near the mines and trade with independent merchants. These latter have suffered with them in the period of loss. In many of the towns cooperative efforts have been made to bring in factories to prevent a drift of a discontented labor element to better fields.

Although some success has been achieved and industries have been attracted from some larger cities, the chamber of commerce announces belief that the state can best be served by having cooperation between the coal producers and miners on the one hand and the industrial plants on the other. If all the coal needed by the plants was purchased from Illinois sources, it is estimated that the war production of the mines could be expanded. The Chicago switching district alone consumes 35 million tons a year, making it the greatest coal market in the world.

New Wage Scale.

A new wage scale in the mines was adopted last September and according to Joseph Zook of the Illinois Coal Operators Labor association, it has resulted in more steady employment for miners and higher average annual earnings, while at the same time, the mining operators to compete with coal dug in other states where labor costs were previously much lower.

How serious the matter was can be evidenced by the statement that only 260 mines are now in operation, while ten years ago there were 400. If the "buy at home" idea catches on in Illinois it is estimated that mine pay rolls can be increased to fifty million dollars from the present twenty-five millions. And the proponents also believe that those buying this coal would get more of their money back in trade from Illinois than they would from other states selling coal. Whatever may be the value of suggestions to keep the money at home, and many of them are not so good as they look at first, Illinois mines are improving business. They sold two million tons more in the first two months of 1929 than in the similar period of 1928.

Allis-Chalmers Net Shows Gain Over 1928 Quarter

New York, April 23.—(AP)—The Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing company had net earnings of $1,013,274 in the first quarter, equal to $3.65 a share on the common. Profit in the corresponding period of 1928 was $675,600, or $2.50 a share. Bookings for the recent quarter were $13,360,192, an increase of 58 per cent over a year ago, while unfilled orders on March 31 amounted to $12,998,553, compared with $9,681,214, an increase of 34 per cent.

Austrian, Hungarian Banks Increase Interest Rates

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, April 23.—Conditions of the international money market in withdrawing short time loans due to the failure of the Paris reparations conference has caused the Austrian National bank to raise the rate of interest on bills of exchange and warrants 1 per cent, namely 7 1/2 per cent. Interest on foreign credits was increased 1/2 per cent and lately the exchange on the dollar was increased to two mills above parity. The Hungarian National bank also raised the rate of interest to 8 per cent on bills and warrants.

RECORD TRANSACTION

New York, April 23.—(AP)—Purchase in the open market today of a block of 100,000 shares of Simms Petroleum at $30 a share, the largest individual transaction in the history of the New York stock exchange, by a powerful market group headed by Michael J. Meehan, revived the "bull" market which has been held in check by tight credit conditions, and sent the day's sales above $4,000,000 shares for the first time in three weeks. At $30 a share this stock is worth $3,000,000.

The previous record for a single transaction was a block of 65,000 shares of U. S. Steel common in June, 1909. However, a block of 100,000 shares of General Baking changed hands in the New York curb market last May.

Meehan, who has amassed a fortune in Radio Corporation common stock and has been one of the leaders of the "bull" forces in the last few years, took over the Simms stock at the opening of the market. The company recently brought in a new pool in the Seminole field, flowing at the rate of 3,000 barrels daily, and the entrance of new interests into the company is reported to have been influenced, in part, by that development.

Board of Trade, Curb Mart
Bills Win Another Round

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Springfield, Ill., April 23.—By a decisive vote in each instance the Illinois house of representatives today overruled its committee on banks and banking, which last week sought to kill two bills exempting from the operations of the state blue sky law all securities listed by the Chicago Board of Trade and the Chicago curb exchange.

Largely because of the opposition of David H. Jackson, head of the securities department of Secretary of State Stratton's office, the committee reported the bills out with recommendations that they do not pass.

Sullivan's Argument.
When the report was formally submitted today their author, Representative Timothy J. Sullivan of Springfield, moved that the house do not concur in the committee's recommendations. His motion in connection with the Board of Trade bill was passed by a vote of 92 to 12, and the vote on his second motion was 78 to 23.

His argument, emphasized by a number of other speakers including Elmer J. Schnackenberg, Frank Ryan and Michael L. Igoe of Chicago, M. P. Rice of Lewiston, and Roger F. Little of Champaign, was that the state law exempts from the necessity of license the securities listed by the Chicago Stock exchange, and the stock exchange of New York and Boston.

Most of the speakers talked about the Chicago Board of Trade bill and stressed the contention that the Illinois institution has as high a standing as any organization of its kind in the country. Representative Rice commented on the fact that New York itself recently has admitted the advance of Chicago as a financial center and charged that to hamper progress of that character would be an injury not only to the metropolis but to the entire state.

Cry of Opposition.
Such opposition as there was to overriding the banking committee and the secretary of state's office found its voice in the arguments of Robert J. Branson of Centralia and Karl R. Hall of Paris. They insisted that the passage of the bills would amount to almost a nullification of the blue sky law because of the large number and variety of securities to which the Chicago markets would be opened. Sullivan and his supporters replied that the number of securities now licensed under the blue sky law which would be exempted from that process by his bills would be small.

Board of Trade and curb exchange members were gratified at the action of the house, it was asserted in Chicago. It was taken as meaning that opening of trading in securities on the Board of Trade will possibly be at an earlier date than was expected. "I am pleased with the vote, but not surprised," said President Samuel P. Arnot of the Board of Trade. "No other action of such an eminently fair measure could be anticipated."

Authorization also was given the Mohawk corporation to issue 498 shares of no par value stock and acquire certain assets of the Royal Rapid corporation.

Will Spend $10,000,000 for Expansion in Chicago Area

Youngstown, O., April 23.—(AP)—James A. Campbell, president of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, told the annual stockholders' meeting that the company will spend about $10,000,000 a month for the rest of the year on improvements and betterments. No expansion of capacity is being made in the Youngstown district, but about $10,000,000 is being spent for expansion in the Chicago district, he said.

New York, April 23.—Buying enthusiasm was on display in various directions in today's stock market, and prices moved quite vigorously at intervals. Up to the early afternoon virtually the whole list was on the advance, but a rise from 7 1/4 to 8 per cent in the call rate coupled with news of another breakdown in the reparations conference brought the movement to a halt, and many stocks lost their gains in the late trading.

Several groups, most of the so-called pivots and enough specialties, held out against the selling with sufficient strength, however, to give the closing tables a strong forward looking front with the leaders showing net gains of from 3 to 10 points.

More Conspicuous.
Pool activity was more conspicuous in certain quarters than it has been for weeks, one of its leading subjects of operation being General Motors, which was pushed ahead for nearly 3 points. IS YOUR LIST
OF SECURITIES STILL WELL BALANCED?

During the last few years, there has been a vastly increasing interest in stocks. Buying stocks, in many cases for quick profits, has resulted in a large number of investment lists becoming out of balance. Without realizing it, probably, many investors no longer are following a definite investment plan.

Both bonds and stocks bought for investment, have a place in the investment accounts of most individuals. The important point is to maintain a reasonable balance between the two. How much one should have in bonds and how much in stocks must be determined by the individual requirements of the investor.

We will gladly analyze your investments from this standpoint.

WHEAT MARKET PRICES AGAIN ON DOWNHILL PATH

General Liquidation Is Apparent in Corn.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Wheat prices were again on the downward slide yesterday, with the May delivery here dropping to $1.12, a new low on the crop, but the decline in large measure represented selling by longs in the nearby month who in turn reloaded by purchases of the July and September.

The finish was on a fair rally from the inside figures on buying, inspired by a material enlargement in the foreign demand for cash grain and on short covering with May off at the last at $1.12 to $1.13, while the deferred futures were 1/4c lower to 1/4c higher, July being $1.17 to $1.17 1/2, and September, $1.25 to $1.25 1/2. At the low May showed 2 1/2c under the recent high, and 1 1/2c under the best figure of the previous week.

Considerable attention was given by corn traders to a press report that the Staley plant at Decatur, Ill. had been forced to close down due to cancellations of orders for corn sugar, and general liquidation followed, with top loss orders uncovered, and the finish was at net losses of 1/4c to 1/2c, with May leading. The latter closed at 87 1/2 to 87 3/4, July, $1.06 to $1.06 1/2, and September, $1.14 to $1.14 1/2. May was 1/4c higher with May, $1.06; July, 92 1/2c, and September, 93 1/2c.

May Wheat Weakness. Selling of May wheat against purchases of the deferred deliveries resulted in the nearby delivery going to 4 1/2c under the July at the last, the greatest discount of the season. Winnipeg showed strength and finished 1/4c lower to 1/4c higher with May there to over Chicago at $1.20, or within 1/4c of the same delivery at Liverpool. Buenos Aires was off 1 1/2c at the last. Liverpool closed 1/4c lower for the day with some buying on prospects that Germany and Russia would come into the market as buyers.

There was a marked improvement in the foreign demand for cash wheat with sales of 2,500,000 to 3,000,000 bu. in all positions, with the continent taking hold freely. Included in the business was some No. 3 hard winter. The price of the latter is reported as down to 90 1/2c at interior points in Kansas and Nebraska.

Liquidation in Corn. Liquidation was on in corn from the start, and while bulls made an effort to advance prices at one time the May dropped to 87 1/2c, a new low on the present movement, and the finish was about the bottom. Wet weather was forecasted for the belt over night which is expected to delay plowing and planting. Shipping demand was only fair with the spot basis steady to 1/4c higher. Buenos Aires closed unchanged for the day with May at 84 1/2c.

May oats were strong early with light offerings and buying by the northwest a factor, but the market weakened later in sympathy with other grains. Owing to the late sea-

Forest Merger Urged by Davis; He Tells of Plan

Wants Three Counties to Share in Work.

All true friends of life in the open, preserved in all its natural beauty, will support the report of the forest preserve consolidation bill, known as bill No. 170, now pending in the legislature. It was declared yesterday by Brig. Gen. Davis' committee chairman of the citizens' advisory committee which is sponsoring consolidation into one unbroken strip of green the present scattered strips forming the present districts of Cook, Kane, and Du Page counties.

A bond issue of $3,788,250 is provided for in the bill, with the idea of an additional $1,000,000 to be raised by a tax on the property of the county necessary to carry out the elaborate plans drawn by Brig. Gen. Davis' committee and submitted to the county board last January.

Others on the committee with Gen. Davis are Daniel H. Burnham, Rufus C. Davis, Edward East, E. Brown, P. W. Brummel, John C. Lewis, John T.

McCutcheon, Frederick W. Penfield, and Paul C. Gale. State Senator Arthur A. Huesch introduced the bill at the last session.

The bill already has passed the senate and is pending before the lower house.

As the best outline of the purpose on which the funds will be put, Gen. Davis pointed to the bill and said the plan of the committee as submitted to the county board:

"To acquire and hold lands containing natural forests or lands containing such forests, for the purpose of protecting and preserving the flora, fauna, and scenic beauties of these spots as nearly as may be in their original condition, for the purpose of the education, pleasure, and recreation of the public."

"Chicagoans have at their front doors such treasures of nature as only kings could enjoy in ancient European parks," Gen. Davis continued.

"Let's save the nature's beauties instead of permitting it to be destroyed through commercialism."

After months of study, experts employed by the committee worked out the plan for the distribution for the $5,000 acre to which it is to expand the preserves: Natural forests, 26,750 acres; play fields and parking areas, 4,900 acres; rivers and lakes, 3,750 acres; golf, 1,400 acres, and zoo, arboretum, etc., 700 acres.

Live Calmly, Stay Young, Declares Doctor Who Is 80

How to reach one's maximum efficiency, the nation's most men are relegated to the old men's home was told yesterday by Dr. Wallace K. Harrison, supreme medical examiner of the Royal League. The order's biennial convention opened at the Hotel Shuman. Less vigorous golf, more walking, putting around the garden, and getting rid of the idea that man must be a boy again, were recommended by the doctor, who is himself well on his way to the age of 80 years. Dr. Harrison contends that the richest and most useful years of life come after reaching 60 years of age. Age, he said, is nothing but a point of view; for many men are old at 40, and others young at 80.

Rural Parish Called Harder Than Big City Pulpit

"It takes a better man to make a success as a minister in a rural parish than it does in the city," declared Prof. R. J. Colbert, University of Wisconsin rural life expert. He spoke before a group of doctors here, the theme representing churches in northern Illinois.

"The country pastor is closer to his congregation. He must be the kind that wears out," they said, kind, urging that clergymen become interested in the problems of their communities. "We have too many city pastors now," they said. "They would well afford to let the radio do the preaching."

Springfield, Ill., April 23.—[U. P.] The controversy over the statue of Abraham Lincoln that stands at the entrance of the Illinois State House has taken a new twist today with an editorial demand by the Illinois State Journal that it be relocated in a less conspicuous place or destroyed. The editorial remarks:

"The suggestion is made that the Lincoln statue on the approach to the state house be removed to another location on the grounds. A more sensible proposal suggests the destruction of the statue. The preservation of the wonderful head, and junking the body."

"The proposal to move the statue is urged because it is so placed that it breeds the approach and detracts of its majesty. The statue does worse. It affronts visitors. Encountering it for the first time and in the absence of explanations, they get from it an impression that it is a grotesque caricature. Even when it is explained that the misshapen legs and paralytic arm are but symbols, supposed to suggest Lincoln's humility for something of the sort, the statue annoys."

but Mrs. Gann Is Missing at Luncheon

Washington, D. C., April 23.—[Special.]—Mrs. Edward Gann, half sister and official hostess of the President, was among those present at the luncheon of the Senate ladies club today. Mrs. Gann was dedicated for the presidency of that club at its recent election, the ladies electing Mrs. Charles C. Moseley, wife of the former Hampshire senator to the post. Instead, today's luncheon of the club was the first held since the recent victory of Mrs. Gann in her fight for reelection, one of the fiercest of the foreign diplomats here. Mrs. Hoover attended the luncheon. This was said to be the first time a President's wife had attended the club without first having been a member. Both Mrs. Gann and Mrs. Warren G. Harding had been members before their husbands became Presidents.

High Schools Bands to Seek State Honors at Urbana Thursday

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Urbana, Ill., April 23.—Chicago and Cook county high school and grade bands are expected to put in strong bids for honors in the sixth annual Illinois band contest to be held at the University of Illinois, starting Thursday. Bands eligible to compete in the finals were winners in the various district and sectional meets held during the last several weeks. ## No More Bad Complexion Bad complexion usually comes from indigestion and the spread of poisons from stomach and intestines. This acid poison has to get out somewhere, and usually picks on your face.

ACIDINE

Clears most complexions in a week because it removes the cause of indigestion and prevents spread of toxic acid poisons through the system. We guarantee it to clear yours, too, if you take it after each meal. If it doesn't, your druggist will return your money, or write Health Laboratories, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Film

Gone... teeth regain sparkling whiteness

Film discolors teeth and then destroys them.
Dentists urge a special way to remove it.

DON'T be discouraged if teeth are not white and sparkling. You have 9 chances in 10 that they are merely coated with a dingy film. This is what has been found in thousands upon thousands of cases. You can quickly see by trying the special dentifrice called Pepsodent that removes film where ordinary methods fail to act successfully.

What film is
Film is the great enemy of teeth and gums—a chief cause, according to world's dental authorities, of most tooth and gum disorders. Film absorbs the stains from food and smoking and gives that cloudy look. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays.

Film hardens into tartar. Germs by the millions breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. To remove film, use the special film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent. It acts to curdle film and easily remove it in gentle safety to enamel.

Don't expect the same results from old-time dentifrices. See for once and all how white and bright teeth really are. Get Pepsodent at any drug counter, or write for free 10-day supply to The Pepsodent Co., 1104 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago.
